When you have a non-healing or slow healing wound, day to day activities are more difficult. If left untreated, these wounds could cause long term, permanent damage.

The Wound Centers at Pen Bay Medical Center and Waldo County General Hospital offer compassionate treatment for your chronic and non-healing wounds right here in the Midcoast.

Talk to your doctor about a referral today or call for more information.

Healing faster.
Close to home.