

I remember Colburn Shoe Store from my childhood. My mother bought my first pair of shoes there!

So much has changed. But I'm still here, selling real estate in the Belfast area for 30 years.

This is my office,
Better Homes and Gardens,
on the corner of Main and High Streets. I recall the Clark Agency at this location in the 1960s.

If you're looking for an experienced real estate broker who knows the Belfast area past & present then I'm the agent for you. Contact me for a free home valuation report.
